Owned and published daily by The Tribune Association New York corporation. Ogden M. Reid, President; G. Vernor Rogers, Secretary and Treasurer. Address Tribune Suffding, No. 154 Nassau at., New York.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.—By Mail, Postage Paid, outside readiness in mobilization, POREIGN RATES.

DAILY AND SUNDAY:
DAILY AND SUNDAY:
Wooth . $1.54 One month .

* Year . 22.05 One year .

SUNDAY ONLY:

DAILY ONLY:

Mail Matter.

lation to General Joffre's Strategy.

lowing the capitulation of Antwerp, as evidence of of that important duty might make it impossible a complete revitalization of the Kaiser's campaign The voter who neglects this opportunity to put his in the western war theatre. Impressed by the easy name on the registration lists is taking a long extension of German control to Ghent and Bruges chance with his right to vote. Ostend can be occupied with so little resistance, press through the ballot the views a man holds on why not also Dunkirk, Calais, Boulogne, Dieppe and the whole eastern Channel coast?

Such a question indicates a failure to realize the connection between recent events in Belgium and Miss Grace Strachan for Associate City Superinon Thursday last-two days before the fall of Ant- less important place Miss Strachan has manifested aral Joffre will take any serious risks trying to merits of her "equal pay" campaign, her methods relieve Antwerp." It was evident then that the in it marked her as a clever but unscrupulous burrying French and British troops into Belgium. Politics, whether personal or partisan, is a thing The sole military problem for the French compushed beyond Arras to the Belgian border, and Pose her advancement. the pressure on that part of the German line kept clear the district through which the Belgian field on the part of the German forces further west, enough to pass the regular appropriation bills in miserably." Perish miserably yourself, Hector, and the neighborhood of Arras and Lille. The bulk of the Belgian army got away safely toward Ghent and Ostend and thence into Northeastern France. That was about all that the French commander in clief could alm at the attempting to eight point on the analysis of the could alm at the attempting to eight point on the analysis of the could alm at the attempting to eight point on the attempting to eight point on the attempting to eight point on the state to recognize the linder pendence of the Philippines on a date not specified and on conditions which are so vague as to bind northly the alled campaign and to adapt his operations to his present resources.

The fall of Antween beloages in fact, was alled the remaining before March 4 next.

The fall of Antween beloages in fact, was alled the remaining before March 4 next.

The fall of Antween beloages in fact, was alled the neighborhood of Arras and Lille. The bulk of the Belgian prepared to become law. It is fraudulent on its face, since it seeks to give an impression of doing what it does not do. It is fraudulent on its face, since it seeks to give an impression of doing what it does not do. It is fraudulent on its face, since it seeks to give an impression of doing what it does not do. It is fraudulent on its face, since it seeks to give an impression of doing what it does not do. It is fraudulent on its face, since it seeks to give an impression of doing what it does not do. It is fraudulent on its face, since it seeks to give an impression of doing what it does not do. It is fraudulent on its face, since it seeks to give an impression of doing what it does not do. It is fraudulent on its face, since it seeks to give an impression of doing what it does not do. It is fraudulent on its face, since it seeks to give the revert the case been any to eight point on do, and have been thus impression of doing what it does not do. It is fraudulent on its face, since it seeks to give the revert the case to doing that the commander in the pression of doing what it does not do. I these being held in check by the fierce fighting in the brief time remaining before March 4 next.

The fall of Antwerp belongs, in fact, as a mili- Senate and the President approve it. It is beneath tary event to the first stage of the western cam- the dignity of the government and violative of all paign. When Liège and Namur surrendered, Brussour national traditions to juggle with a declarasels was occupied and the Germans pushed rapidly tion which may lead the Filipinos to think that we So-don't go in them li-ons' cage to-night!" en into France the fate of Antwerp was sealed. It are going to renounce our sovereignty over the archipelago. We have never yet hauled down the held out only until they could get sufficient reserves flag in any territory which we have lawfully ac- do not trust our judgment enough to say. But one loss of Belgium was the inevitable price which soil which has become ours by treaty. It is not the Allies had to pay to Germany because of the latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the Philippine latter's greater preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the preparedness for war and the sulfit is preposterous to say that the preparedness for war and the sulfit is preparedness. periority of her machinery of mobilization and archipelago can be governed by the Filipinos bet-would have to be paid. Germany's overweight in numbers, in the first month of the war, threatened by in the face of all American achievement and headlines. the less of all Northern and Northeastern France, dispute the efficiency of the United States as an including Parls. There was a possibility six weeks agency of progress and civilization. ago that on October S the Allies, instead of manœuvring to relieve Antwern, would be fighting for existence in the Valley of the Loire. To treat the Carefully guarded as his letter is, President Wil- Cost one and a half dollars at the Hook station. fall of Antwerp and the evacuation of Ostend as son actually has said that he hoped Governor Glynn To miss Belgium and grand Brussels black marks against General Joffre's strategy is to ignore the real problem with which he had to deal and the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with which the Allies have tool in the splendid success with the and the splendid success with which the Allies have | teet immunity from criminal prosecution? Would That they were hungry and fatigued was easy to see stemmed the current running only six weeks ago be write a similar letter to Controller Sohmer, Some hadn't a meal in two days; And got to that port in various ways. Some lost their baggage; some their cars; last week in Belgium are a payment of debts incurred at the beginning of the war. They cannot dorsing the Glynn record Mr. Wilson indorses these We sailed at night by gun boats escorted materially affect the development of General men also, since they will trail into office at the Thus our capture on the channel was thwarted. Joffre's present plans, which contemplate a careful heels of a Glynn victory. "The tail goes with the Then the British cruiser Amphion did loom offensive-defensive in the western area until time hide" in politics, as elsewhere.

trenched from Verdun west to Noyon and thence men into office again. Every Tammany cart-tail men, whom the police say are members of the Red ness. The Kaiser did not march his armies into for our ticket; don't forget to put your cross From "With Both Armies," by Richard Harding France in order to plant them on the defensive wherever you see a star on the ballot." north and east of Paris. He looked for vast, de- by kicking "Jim" Smith, a dead boss in New Jer- protection, no seclusion, no peace." the rout and dispersion of the French first line live boss here.

armies and the transfer of active operations south of the Loire.

Less than that he could not have accepted as a guarantee of Germany's triumph over her foes. Now he sees his troops deadlocked on the Mense-Marne line and the weeks slipping by in which he expected to turn to decisive account Germany's more thorough military organization and greater

The aggressive movements on the extreme French left indicate a purpose to prevent an extension 250 of the German lines to the French Channel ports. Yet even if that extension should be made with the It is the little people who must suffer and weep, assistance of the army hitherto employed against Antwerp, the German campaign would still fall

Germany cannot afford to sit still, whereas sitting still helps the cause of the Allies. Great The Tribune uses its best endeavors to insure the spring, too, the full force of the Russian attack toworthiness of every advertisement it prints and to have occupied Belgium and a small portion of Events in Belgium and Their Re- France if she has to remain in that territory all winter reduced to the defensive.

Don't Fail to Register To-day.

We cannot regard the German occupation of the Those voters who have not already registered northern and northwestern portion of Belgium, fol- should do so to-day without fail. Postponement of fulfilment. This is the third registration day. They give their all, who built the world, they give

It will not take as long to register to-day as it O unregardful Kings, and ye who hold high desernment and the bulk of the allied forces collected will take to-morrow, when the crush of last minute there, many critics have jumped to the conclusion the poll clerks. The safe and sane way is to that a new series of German successes on the west register this morning on the way to work. Then front is in sight. If Antwerp, Ghent, Bruges and there can be no question about the right to ex-

No Politics in the Schools.

Mayor Mitchel's opposition to the candidacy of he fundamental strategy of the Allies. We wrote tendent of Schools is well founded. In her present was announced: "It is not likely that Gen. tendencies which do not commend her for advancement in the school system. Regardless of the

to be discounted in the school system. The person who seeks advantage or advancement by way of in chief was the extrication, if possible, of politics should find the city's schools the least ferthe Antwerp garrison. The French turning move-tile ground. Since the Mayor, with justice, puts Of types The Tribune has a hoston the German right wing was therefore Miss Strachan into that class, he does well to op-

An Insult to National Efficiency.

The Philippine bill which the House of Representatives passed on Wednesday will not be taken react injuriously on the United States, should the "Don't go in them li-ons' cage to-night, mother-ter than we can govern it. It is to our advantage It looked for a time as if a much greater price to retain our Far Eastern dependency. And it is that there is no loser's share for those who bet.

Doing Murphy's Work.

ers for Murphy in high salaried places? In in. This was all due to the wicked war in progress

It is argued that if the Germans extend their fortified lines north until the latter reach Ostend or some other Channel port they will have planted of some other Channel port themselves securely in the enemy's territory and accomplished one of the main purposes of their invasion. But it is obvious that if the German staff vasion the main the came and passion. Six: Was the adopt vasion of the Editor of The Tribu northeast to Arras and Ostend it would have speaker will read the Wilson letter for the rest of Onion gang.-The Sun. laughed to scorn such a prediction of inconclusive the campaign and declare that "the President is cisive results-the capture of Paris, the possession sey. It is not pleasant now to see him, even unof the Verdun-Belfort line of frontier fortresses, wittingly, lending his prestige to Murphy, a very Thanks for the ad, Dick.

The Conning Tower

The Little People.

BY CHARLES HANSON TOWNE. The little, simple people are they who shall go down,

Not Kings and Kaisers, Emperors, and unavailing crown-"Tis they who know the power of guns, and feel the curse of Mars.

They who do the wise things, the good things of

They who till the farmlands, they who softly reap The grain and the harvest, and build fires on the

The good folk, the kind folk-'tis they who run toward Hell

When Kaizer and Emperor dare to urge them forth; Forgotten are the homely ways when sounds the war god's bell-

From East and West they gather, from still vine yards of the North

From orange-groves and wheat-fields, barley-brake

From business in the quiet towns, the sane work They rush at the mad call, and face the stinging

Of shot and shell and cannon-for the King's flag is unfurled!

The little, simple people now run a race with Death, They who ran wise errands for the rulers of the earth;

their very breath,

And who shall blow to life again the fires upon the hearth?

tinies Within our misnamed mighty hands, how dare ye

When ye have thrown your simple people, people The good folk, the little folk, face downward on

For they are worth more than your crowns, more They are the wise ones, and ye the foolish. .

Keep them and protect them, before your light burns

And the Lord God rebukes you on His awful Judgment Day!

General News is gaining many victories these mornings. 'The General's aide, Carman Case, is helping him this week.

By the way, where is Harry K. Thaw these mornings, afternoons, postscripts, finals, final completes, and evenings?

TO ADVERTISERS:

And this is 12-point Curtis Post; And this, 12-point Quentell.

"Therefore," counsels the amiable Mr. Hector = parent that the columns which escaped up by the Senate at this session. We do not believe that it can be railroaded through the Senate by youth in a satisfactory manner go and watch Mr. not cut off by an enveloping movement at the next session, since there will be trouble Wu enjoy his brief moment of revenge and perish

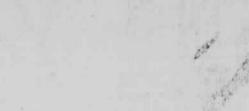

For them li-ons is feerocious, and may bite;

into Belgium to justify them in besieging it. The quired. It is not in the American blood to give up evening at "Pygmalion" and two on Oliver Onions's Took us to Harwich and went out to her doo Governor Glynn is now window dressing for Only then did we know the stand England had taken To the real situation we were suddenly awakened. gives the Allies the benefit of a marked superiority Tammany Hall. His personal career and his po-

"'Whom are you?' said Cyril."

Davis: "It is the conning tower of the relief President Wilson got his start in popular favor column, only, unlike a conning tower of the relief Being a st

THEIR FIGHTING FACES.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN ALARMED FOR U. S. DOCKING REPEALED. IN CASE OF WAR CONGRESSMEN FLIT An Open Forum for Public Debate.

provides the provided and provi

as I have rarely witnessed."

Cherishing such views, Dr. Gregorius naturally did not look with favor upon woman suffrage when he made a tour recently through the Scandinavian countries. On his return he declared that the once warlike and combative Scandinavian man had been feminized: "He has lost his passion to fight and conquer men and women, and aims alone at showing sweet reason and the avoids."

Whitman's political enemies, who have in public office that would be a reflection. RALPH HALPERN. Richmond Hill, N. Y., Oct. 15, 1914.

A Question for England.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: I was born in Brooklyn and the avoids. fight and conquer men and women, and aims alone at showing sweet reason and the avoidance of wet feet."

When the question of the complete political separation of Sweden and Norway came up a few years ago they settled it by taking a popular vote instead of by going to war. In view of what is happening in Europe to-day, if woman suffrage really promotes sweet reason and lessens "the passion to fight," it would seem to be an argument why the whole world should adopt woman suffrage as quickly as possible.

Sir: I was born in Brooklyn and have lived here all my life, and will admit that I don't understand what the admit that I don't understand what the ment of conditions throughout Long Island Railroad, replied yesterday here guarantee and offered to make to the Business Men's Association, House Jan. Holled Meaking a popular vote instead of by going to war. In view of "No Good," or is she going to make up the Belgians' loss? FRED WALLER.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 12, 1914.

The Red Cross Treasurer.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Commuters Must Pay More.

In response to a request for a state-admitton to conditions throughout Long Island Railroad, replied yesterday to the Business Men's Association, House Jan. House and Central Pain. House Island, Railph Peters, president of the Now York State Rail believed to the Business Men's Association, House Jan. House Island, Railph Peters, president of the Now York State Rail believed to the Business Men's Association of Italian and Pan-Heliese Common and Island Railroad, replied yesterday to the Business Men's Association, House Jan. House Island Railroad, replied yesterday to the Business Men's Association of Italian and Pan-Heliese Common and Island Railroad, replied yesterday to the Business Men's Association, House Jan. House Island Railroad, replied yesterday to the Business Men's Association, House Jan. House Island Railroad, replied yesterday to the Business Men's Association, House Jan. House Island Railroad, replied yesterday to the Business Men's Association, House J with reference to the State Civil Service Commission's inquiry into the acts of the local commission, does not, it of the local commission, who desire to support President Wilson who greatly deplore the entrance of Cabinet officers in what is purely local policits, in which citizens of the states who greatly deplore the entrance of Cabinet officers in what is purely local policits, in which citizens of the states who act.

The President in Local Politics.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: There are many independents who deserved the introduction of the states of the states.

The Mission of the Immaculate Virgin Band of fifty pieces will give free concerts. Sunday at Ellis Island, Fred-states in Congress the people can pr when the day or necessity comes."

L. I. R. R. TO RAISE RATES

President Peters Explains Why

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY.